

NORTHERN VIRGINIA INTEGRATIVE THERAPY CENTER

Email Policy

We ask you to respect our email policy. Due to cyberspace security issues, liability issues, boundaries of the therapeutic milieu, we do not accept therapeutic emails from clients.

The only emails we accept from clients are in regard to making, cancelling or clarifying appointment times.

If a spouse, significant other or family member contacts us concerning you via email, we do not respond/share information about you.

If you have a concern or emergency and need to contact your therapist please phone them. In the event it is an emergency situation, please go to your nearest emergency center or call 911.

I, _____, understand and accept the email policy.
